GREAT THINGS HAPPEN IN THE GREEN BLAZER

Information for Parents and Pupils studying for National 5, Higher and Advanced Highers

Update Monday 23 March 5pm

In the absence of any further information from the SQA, we are releasing the following advice to pupils who are studying National Qualifications.

Monday 23 March-Friday 3 April

The priority for pupils is to complete any outstanding coursework for electronic submission for those subjects detailed in the table below. To keep momentum with learning, teachers will use Schoology to suggest consolidation activities but will not issue homework.

Coursework submission for National 5, Higher and Advanced Higher

- The table below details our internal deadlines. Assuming the SQA are sticking to their original deadlines, we must stick to these internal deadlines to allow us to carry out the necessary authenticity and administration checks.
- Some subjects have communicated with pupils about earlier deadlines to allow pupils to submit drafts for feedback prior to the deadlines detailed below. This varies from subject to subject as it depends on the progress made by subjects and the SQA restrictions placed on teachers as to the amount of feedback they can give.

- Pupils should email, or submit via Schoology, final drafts to their teachers no later than 9am on the deadline given.
- Where there are concerns about coursework material required (e.g. material that is stored on a school computer) pupils should get in touch with their teacher in the first instance.

You can email the IT technicians (ITDept@staloyisius.org) or Mr Cluckie (jcluckie@staloyisius.org).
